All Belong Center for Inclusive Education, formerly known as CLC Network, is seeking to add a part-time school psychologist to its office in Wyoming, MI. Our team of school psychologists provide faith-based comprehensive educational evaluations to students and families at more than 70 schools in 9 states. This is a school-year, part-time position representing up to a 40% contract, starting in September 2019.

Reports to: Director of Evaluation Services

Qualifications:

- The ideal candidate will have a commitment to the Christian faith and to the importance of inclusive education for students of all abilities.
- Candidates must hold a current State of Michigan School Psychologist Certificate. Candidates with credentials as a Nationally Certified School Psychologist (NCSP) will be given first consideration.
- Some travel and scheduling flexibility will be required.

Compensation:

- Salaried at 40% FTE, on a 200-day school year contract (September through June). This position is not eligible for benefits.
- Mileage and travel expenses will be reimbursed; computer provided.

A background check will be conducted as a condition of employment. To apply, please send cover letter, which includes a statement of faith, and resume to Sharon Ward, office manager, at sward@allbelong.org.

About Us

Our mission is to equip congregations and schools to glorify God through purposeful, innovative inclusion of persons with varied abilities.

In September 2019, CLC Network will publicly launch our new name, All Belong Center for Inclusive Education. This redefined, bold organizational identity clearly articulates the heart of our forty-year mission—that persons of all abilities belong within community. Learn more about our work at allbelong.org.
